

Friends and Family,

I am truly the luckiest man on earth. I found the woman of my dreams, and with her I have had the most incredible experience that I could ever have imagined. I will never get over what has happened to Eadie, but I will in time, learn to live with it. I have cherished every minute with Eadie. I guess the old saying "The light that burns twice as bright, burns half as long. And you have burned so very, very brightly.." is true.

Eadie and I were talking the other day, and I mentioned to her how tough it is not having a family; Eadie turned to me and said "Mike, you have my family". Eadie is right.

I have a beautiful granddaughter, two sons that I love unconditionally, and Sue who has become my mentor. I have been accepted into Eadie's family and the Kreuz family. My life has been enriched in many ways.

This journey has been a tough one, but I know that we did the right thing. I hope that everyone understands that all of the decisions from the very beginning have been made in Eadie's best interest. I would have gladly taken care of Eadie here in Hilton Head for the rest of her life, but that would have been selfish of me. It was evident from the beginning that moving Eadie to Live next to family was best thing to do. Because of that decision, Eadie has been lovingly cared for. There is now a bond between Eloise and Eadie that will last forever. Eloise knows that something is wrong with gammy. You can see it in the way that she approaches Eadie with such love. To Eadie, 'Eloise hung the moon'.

I can't begin to express how Eadie hated the time that she had to spend in Bloom, and how thankful I am that she is not living in that kind of environment.

Casey, you are a magnificent and loving person. Your sacrifice and the love for your mother has exceeded my wildest expectation. I admire you and respect you like no other person that I have ever known.

Kelly, If it weren't for you, none of this would have been possible. You have carried a tremendous burden, and I don't know how to express my gratitude to you. Thank you for everything that you have done. You are the embodiment of a lady. Your strength, determination and compassion are a testament to Cindy and Joe. They have done a magnificent job raising their children. You have and will continue to make this world a better place to live. I am humbled by the example that you have set.

Please celebrate Eadie's Life –

Regards,

Mike Davis
